

RACE ONE: #8 is third off, drop/switch, bet down, ran like crap on a muddy track. I might put a little something on him if he goes off at 6-1 or higher.

RACE TWO: #3 looks reasonably unbeatable. #7 is a dropping BTL horse that might make it a contest.

RACE THREE: #5's been running against better, but not very well. Drops, switches to Ramgeet. With these bottom level claimers, you never know who might wake up.

RACE FOUR: Awful bunch of cheap claimers. #1 might get the lead in here, but who knows if she can keep it? #7 might repeat, but risky. #6 might have a shot.

RACE FIVE: #3 third off, drops off a pretty good BTL race; probable. #7 might be in the mix.

RACE SIX: I might look at the #1 and #4.

RACE SEVEN: Got to think the #3 could wire, but there's other speed in here. If the jock's smart enough to rate him, he might win, anyway.

RACE EIGHT: Lots of early speed in here, but not very quick. If they wear themselves out, I'd look at #2.
