

#10 looks like a standout in here. Not much value in the BES/Preakness double if she wins. I might take a stand with a fairly heavy Adare Manor/Simplification, Secret Oath double and expect to tear my ticket up when the race is over.

Pgm	Horse	Note	My odds	M/L
1	Divine Huntress	Presser with some quickness. Her three best races give her a 92 speed average, including one ATDS, in which she placed 5th (the G3 Gazelle at Aqueduct. Dylan will probably go for the lead, find out he can't get it, and settle, hoping to close in the stretch. Steps up from G3 to a G2.	25-1	15-1
2	Missy Greer	Just broke her maiden, never had a fig that would be competitive in here, keeps Saez for Gargan, comes from GP after 2 months off; not Danny's forte.	40-1	20-1
3	Miss Yearwood	Just broke maiden, at CD, keeps Leparoux for Wilkes, very nice work since; third off; distance no problem; shortens; still taking on too much, I fear.	10-1	20-1
4	Midnight Stroll	Nice win at Tam in last against $110k statebred types; steps up; gets Castellano for Terranova; don't think that will put her in the mix.	25-1	15-1
5	Beguine	Candy Ride horse lost G3 Fantasy at OP by a neck in last; picks up Ortiz from Arrieta; excellent works since last; I guess it's possible; nice post. (But it's a Candy Ride horse.)	9-1	12-1
6	Luna Belle	On a five race win streak; Laurel horse; probably 94 or so average last five; all against $100k horses; Araujo stays; decent works since; obviously possible; still, I think a bit overmatched in here.	7-1	9-2
7	Distinctly Possible	Broke her maiden in last with a 95 at Kee; Ortiz stays for Chad; okay works since; presser/closer; has a little quickness; speed figs rising; question mark.	5-1	6-1
8	Candy Light	Obviously a Candy Ride horse; comes off an okay race at Laurel where she ran second; Marquez stays for Motion; okay works since; presser/closer; wouldn't seem to have much of a shot in here. (But it's a Candy Ride horse.)	30-1	20-1
9	Interstatedaydream	Led a G1 at Kee until the half in last; third off; Florent stays for Cox; can wire, press, or close; great works since; scary.	5-1	6-1
10	Adare Manor	West coast horse; best figs by far; G2 and G3 in last two; sent from Baffert to Yakteen to 1sr start with McCarthy (22% overall); likes front end, but can press; plenty of quickness to handle the post; great works since (at SA); Johnny V stays; if she takes to CD she's probably gone.	8-5	5-2
11	Radio Days	Candy Ride/Gunrunner horse; Been running against tough horses (G2, G3, 250k) but no wins against them; okay works since; Joel stays for Shug III; has a couple of decent figs; closer; beaten fave two and three back; love Joel but don't think he can get this horse there. (But it's a Candy Ride horse.)	17-1	12-1
12	Favor	Nice horse; low figs; mediocre works; Tyler stays for Todd; back from the Fair Grounds after a two-month layoff; cost $610k; don't see it at all; call me crazy.	25-1	8-1
13	Morning Matcha	Comes off a couple of decent races, last a G3 in which she finished next to last; some nice works since; Frankie stays for Reid; hasn't won outside of	15-1	20-1

		Parx; probably not.
