#10 Candy Ride
 Since trainer Wesley Ward has won all three 2yo maiden races this meet it might well be fruitless trying to beat him this April - but I'll try. 9Y QUALMOSTHADME has worked a lot and worked very fast from the gate over this surface, attracting one of the leading jockeys. Trainer E Keneally has only run two early 2yo first-timers (before July) over the last five years, but one of them won and 10 TOO FAST FOR YOU looks like he might be quick. Maybe Ward-trained 11 LATE NITE MISTRESS worked with Ward-trained Baraye on April 15, and if so, Baraye got the quicker clocking. I still prefer the Into Mischief filly, Late Nite Mistress.

1CALL OF HONOR flopped in his most recent start but has five other dirt routes, including a win over the track, hinting he can go wire to wire from the rail while racing for the first time as a gelding. 20TTOHELEGENDE figures to be chasing the top pick and has shown no great affinity for passing horses. Another first-time gelding who seems to fit the spot solidly enough. 5HARD LOVE is on a hard class drop, making first start for a tag at the $12.5K claiming level, and we have no idea how he goes over dirt.

#4 Candy Ride

4MASTERFUL MEG was working over the winter (and perhaps more recently) with Why Waste Words, who debuts in the nightcap, and in the video of the dirt work I watched, MM looked far superior. That was back in February and she since has turned in increasingly faster drill, for whatever that's worth. The dam was a grass horse and Meg's sister Miss Yearwood stakes-placed on turf for the Wilkes barn. 7UP AND DOWN, whose sister is the G3 / G2 turf middle distance horse Fluffy Socks, was all right, not great, debuting in a Saratoga turf sprint last summer, he lone start. She should get the two-turn trip in her first start at age 3 an might well be good enough. 8MAKE THE BOYS WINK, a fourth-time starter, was second of 10 last out in a GP MSW that was fast-paced and fell apart the final three-sixteenths. She was fine but did get a strong assist from race flow.

7LONGSHADOW is not a horse to love at something like at the 3-1 listed price (those listed prices were nothing like a guarantee of actual odds this past weekend), but in the end I couldn't get past him. He's second off the layoff on a class drop that seems much more positive than negative ($7K purchase price, in for $50K), and has turned in solid performances his three dirt starts. Should be a good fit for the Beard Course. Would have taken 5SAIL AT SUNRISE at distances up to 6 1/2 furlongs. He's better on dirt than synthetics and has contending dirt form and encouraging works, but I just don't think he really wants to run this far. 4THE HONORABLE ONE might prove more competitive than the recent Ohio speed figures suggest, and don't at all mind him cutting back from two-turn miles to this extended one-turn trip.

10ALWAYS ABOVE revealed himself as a far better horses over long distances (by American standards) as soon as he was stretched out last year. His form did hit a plateau but think he could back for first start as a 4yo a faster horse. Not a bad showing going this distance over the KEE course last fall, and while that was the same class level, this race looks like a considerably softer spot. Pace layered upon pace, and the race could be crying out for the right closer. 11MASTER OF THE RING makes his first turf start at a distance longer than 1 1/16 miles and his trainer, Mike Maker, has worked wonders with older male turf-marathon runners. 9MOUNT RUNDLE is the M Nehei-trained stablemate of the top pick and actually beat him when they met at Kentucky Downs last year. Am not quite as convinced as with AA that he really wants to run quite this far.

#1 Candy Ride
5PRINCELY in his only two-turn start among four career races was returning from a winter layoff, caught a strong field of Fair Grounds NIX allowance foes, and found some trouble in running. All things considered - not bad. And second race back from the break, given a logical drop into a $75K conditioned claimer (he cost just $17K), there's no reason he can't outperform his price. 7ROYAL KING faced strong sprint competition (race winner Corona Bolt won a KEE stake next out) and was a decent fourth last out exiting the maiden ranks. He should clear from post 7 and make the lead, and on pedigree, he could stay the trip. 4BRIGHT SPARK was in a totally paceless race last time, wasn't at his best on turf two back, and three back ran into the nice horse Kupuna. Was second over this surface last fall, and there's really not much wrong with his form with regard to this spot.

 English import 9RECONSIDER ME hit the Fair Hill work tab on Feb. 18 and has not missed a beat, working about every week since then into her second career start, first in N America for trainer HG Motion. The KEE course generally speaking was playing fast and playing to speed last week, and with no rain expected, not sure why that would change. Reconsider Me broke only so-so in her only start but quickly got into stride and led in a Class 4 race won by a William Haggas-trained horse who hasn't run back but looked very useful. Reconsider Me stayed on solidly and, based on that performance and her pedigree, should comfortably stay this two-turn trip. Over the last five years, horses making their N American debut at odds of 5-1 and lower for Motion in MSW turf routes have gone 7-3-1-2. 2CALLIE'S GRIT was a very encouraging second debuting last summer in a good SAR turf-route maiden. Won't hold the far lesser performance over a wet Kentucky Downs grass course against her. She also could show some pace. Yes, trainer C Brown is perhaps the best in N America with first-timers in turf routes, but he's barely run any horses like that at the KEE spring meet, the lone starter a year ago, Polyplot, finishing eighth at 13-10. Brown so far in 2023 is 19-4-3-2 with 2- and 3-year-old firsters in turf-route MSWs, and not convinced 8FRONTAL ATTACK is going to run to her expected low price.

That last running line for 1WHISKARITA can obviously be ignored, and two back she ran a big race to get the place in a race that was light on early zip; shorter distance today but she should get an improved race flow, and that would move her way up. 3TRUE ATKA has lots of room to improve today, at this reduced class level; she's another who stands to benefit from a lively tempo up front. 2SASSY CHARLEE rises into an open claimer after beating non-winners of three in her latest but that was a sharp score and the resulting Beyer gives her strong credibility.

2ALMASHRIQ is easy to like after running 2nd in each of his last two, including his latest, when he missed by just a nose, but he also has appeal as the potential controlling speed in a race lacking pace; can steal this given aggressive handling in the opening stages. FLORD BERRIER gets more distance, and while he was off the board the last time he tried seven furlongs he hasn't posted a better figure since; has the speed to stay close from the start, and that's an edge if the pace is controlled, as expected. 3GOLOVKIN was re-claimed by these connections last time after he was claimed two back, for $8K; should be just off the early pace from the break.

6SALIT was off the board in each of her two starts against winners, including a try at this same level two back, but he showed deceptive late interest in the lane in both of those races, and she earned competitive figures in the process; should be a factor late if she gets a clean trip and an honest pace. 3I'M NERVOUS NOW was third in each of her last two, and her Beyers have been on the rise; clearly dangerous if she can run back to that last figure. 9THREE COINS is very tough to take at any kind of light price, given her overall record, but she's an exotics threat if she can run to her best races in her 2023 debut.

10JACKSON STRONG showed some late life while down inside in the lane in his latest try, and he galloped out with some interest as well; the fact that was a sprint lacking speed, where the pacesetters held the edge, makes that effort all the more impressive. 8GUNMAN just missed in his latest, at a big price, and though he takes a hidden rise in class as he moves from non-winners of two to non-winners of three he does merits respect on the strength of that Beyer; has enough tactical speed to work out another favorable trip. 1THEJIGSUP was in the same race as the top pick two back, and though he was off the board last time those was some slow early fractions he was chasing; needs pace but could prove a threat late if he gets it.

2E M'S TREASUREGIRL ran a big race in her debut, then came back against richer and ran an even bigger race to get the place again, with a better figure; rises again but perhaps good enough if she gets the right kind of trip. 7ASPEN ships over from Gulfstream and has some of the best Beyers in the field; easy to like based on those figures, and she'll clearly be tough if she is able to run back to them. 5ARROBLUE has similar figures and a decent late kick, though her lack of positional speed will likely mean she'll have to pass them all in the lane.

2CELEBRATION DANCE is out of an unraced dam but is kin to two winners, including Shoo Shine, a winner of four of 22 starts; this filly sports a couple of works that hint at some speed and trainer Bernell Rhone has enjoyed success with firsters of late. 3OPEN SKY had a legit pace excuses two back, them lost his best chance at the start in his latest, but she did well to get the show each time; fits well here, and may be the right value play if near her 8-1 ML price. 6COWGIRLLOVER caught the eye with a middle move on the turn in her latest; she flattened out late but could benefit from that experience.

8STREET GLIDE seemed to improve with the addition of Lasix last time out, and he was flattered when the top pair as well as the 4th-place finisher all returned to win their next starts; the layoff is a slight concern but if he comes back running he's certainly more than capable. 9LORD OF THE NILE has had his chances (17) but he also has some of the better Beyers in the field; probably not the right value play if he's a relatively short price but he has to be considered nonetheless. 3FINLANDIAS NEAT has proven speed and comes off a deceptively good effort in his latest, when he dueled for the lead from the start and weakened only late.

11PREFERRED OUTCOME was no real threat in his first start of 2023 but that may have been a little short for him, and he may have needed the race; he also was against the race flow in that abbreviated sprint, and he has every right to improve if he gets an honest pace to chase. 1GOLD WING is much more likely to complete the exacta than he is to key it, if his overall record is any indication, but he does have a decent late kick and he rallied well through the back of the field when last seen, galloping out with purpose. 6GREAT BLAKE makes his return after the seven-month break but he ran well last June when he came back from a layoff; has the tactical speed to work out a favorable trip.

9TRACY ANN'S LEGACY was a very sharp 2nd when last seen, closing well once free of some traffic trouble and racing strongly through the wire; she came from off the pace there but she has more speed than she showed in that race, and that versatility gives her some options in this finale. 10BLAZE AWAY N HIDE has been on the turf only once, in a sprint over this course last year, but she was a game winner, at a huge price; won't offer the same kind of value today but she is worth considering given her early speed and off that running line. 6PROPER MANNERS has consistent Beyers and positional speed, and she's another who should be able to work out a good trip just off the speed(s).
